

New Students

The University of Lleida has a webpage addressed to future students of the UdL. There they can find a guide of activities and all the information they need.

If you want more information about the Faculty of Medicine and its educational offer, you can send an email to the Dean.